

I urge you not to overturn or change New Jersey's Do Not Call law. The respite I have had from pushy telemarketers has been wonderful. I do not invite sales people into my house, and I should not have to deal with unwanted telephone solicitors. Please do not let them (telemarketers) regain the ability to disrupt my life.